THE LEGISLATURE

Some Facts About That Department of Our State Government.

Under the Indiana state constitution the number of senators in the general assembly can never exceed fifty, though it may be less (and the body now has the limit); while the house of representatives can never have more than 100, the present number.

The representatives are elected every two years, but one-half of the senators are elected every two years each to serve four years, so that there are always twenty-five "hold-over" senators, unless in the event of death or other reason for vacancies.

The districts from which senators and representatives may be elected can be changed once every six years by the first subsequent legislature after the regular sexennial enumeration of male citizens of twenty-one years or more. If the first subsequent legislature does not redistrict the state, it may be done by any one subsequent assembly within the six-year period.

Members of both houses must be citizens of the United States for two years preceding election and of the district one year. Senators must be at least twenty-five years of age and representatives twenty-one. No law suit can be started against a member between fifteen days before a session and fifteen days after adjournment. Nothing that a member may say in speech or debate in the assembly is actionable by any aggrieved person.

The pay is $6 a day and twenty cents mileage each way. The regular session begins on the Thursday after the first Monday of January of the odd years and can not extend over sixty-one days counting Sundays. Special sessions can not extend over forty days, but may be called by the governor at any time.

Neither house can adjourn more than three days or repair to any other place than where it is sitting without the consent of the other house.

Bad on The Appetite.

A gentleman from Seymour who is employed in the vicinity of Reddington, made a mistake a few days ago which was not calculated to please a hungry man by any means. He went out on an early interurban car and was supposed to take his lunch along. Later in the day his good wife found that he had not taken his dinner but discovered that a new pair of shoes was missing and this explained the matter. At twelve o'clock that day a hungry, hard working man, with an appetite that would almost digest leather, sat down to a pair of ladies' fine kangaroo shoes. Through sympathy we will omit names and the entire office force will take a smoke.

Ed Himebaugh, rural mail carrier on route No. 2, went to Austin over the interurban line this morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Himebaugh's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell, which occurred at that place this afternoon at 1:30. Eddie Foster, of Vernon township, drove the mail wagon in Mr. Himebaugh's place today.

Pastor Installed.

Rev. J. T. Charlton, former pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city was installed pastor of the Presbyterian church at Sidney, Ohio, November 11. The Sidney Republican gives an account of the special services in connection with the installation. Members of other denominations were present in large numbers.

The sermon of the evening was preached by Dr. J. A. Gordon, of Van Wert, Ohio. The charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. C. W. Caldwell of Wapakoneta, Ohio, and the charge to the people was delivered by Dr. J. Montgomery, of Piqua, Ohio. A reception to the new pastor and his wife followed the services.

After leaving Seymour Mr. Charlton was pastor at Noblesville several years and was recently called to the church at Sidney, which is a desirable charge.

New Skating Rink.

Brownstown may have a new skating rink in the near future and it is rumored that a young man from Seymour is to have charge of the same. The lady who is proprietress of the skating rink at Elizabethtown is considering the matter of opening a rink at Brownstown and may have the Seymour party to manage the same. It is a little late but Brownstown may yet follow other towns and cities by having its skating arena.

Improvements.

W. E. Hoadley, the grocer, has put in some fine new show cases that add much to the appearance to his well arranged storeroom.

Since Tabb & Tabb purchased the Hancock grocery they have been rearranging the goods and now Mr. Hancock is having the storeroom repapered. The work is being done at night after closing hours.

MARRIED.

Mr. Hopewell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hopewell, of North Chestnut street, and his bride has for a long time been a waitress at the New Lynn Hotel.

SMITH.—Silas Smith died Wednesday morning, November 18th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Ingalls, of near the Marion church. Age about 60 years. Mrs. Ingalls has been dead about two years and Mr. Ingalls has since been residing with his children. He had been sick most of the summer and death was the result of stomach trouble. He was raised in the neighborhood where he died and lived there most all his life. He was a farmer and ran a saw mill up to about a year ago. He leaves several children, all of whom are married. There are also several grandchildren living. The burial occurred Thursday at the Marion church.

On Trip South.

Dr. E. A. Severinghaus, Mrs. Severinghaus and her mother, Mrs. Schneek, of Seymour, left yesterday for New Orleans, where Dr. Severinghaus will attend the annual meeting of the American Humane Society. From New Orleans they will go to Corpus Christi and other points in Texas, and thence to Phoenix, Ariz., where they will spend two weeks. They will return about December 12.—New Albany News.

Continue To Haul Water.

Notwithstanding all the rumors concerning the rise of the rivers and the bursting forth of new springs everywhere like oases in the desert, the B. & O. S-W. continues to haul water thought here from Medora to Nebraska. When the pump was out of order at Medora a few days ago the water was brought from Rivervale. The train hauling water makes four round trips each day, that is two each day and two at night, and takes five car loads at a trip except when one of the cars is left off for repairs as is frequently the case. The water is hauled in open cars too except that a few planks are put near the edge of the cars to prevent sloshing over. Some of the cars leave Seymour not more than two thirds full of water on account of leakage but they all get through with some water. The water situation continues to be a problem in many places.

Peppered With Shot.

John and Henry Alberring were out hunting Wednesday on the Alberring farm in the New Driftwood neighborhood. They were in a woods some distance apart with some underbrush between them. John started a rabbit and shot at it. He did not know that Henry was in range of his gun but he was and received a dozen shot in his legs below knees. Fortunately he was quite a distance away and the force of the shot was largely spent before reaching him therefore he was not at all seriously hurt.

Chased Red Fox.

While George Kline, of this city, was hunting in the neighborhood of Dowell hill yesterday his dog flushed something in a stump. The dog began to growl and back away as if there might be a grizzly bear located in the stump. Just then there was a whisk of a bushy tail in the air and out came a big red fox. Kline peppered at the fox with his shotgun but the animal made good its escape over the side of a hill.—Columbus Republican.

Interurban Freights.

Since the new change of managers on the interurban lines all the interurban freight is being transferred at Seymour. The freight from Louisville arrives here about 11 o'clock at night transfers its freight and returns to Louisville. The car from Indianapolis comes in about 10 o'clock in the morning and as soon as it has exchanged its load starts on its return trip. There is always some freight but the business is much lighter now than it was in the berry and melon seasons.

Stream Pollution.

The prolonged drouth and the extreme low water in the larger streams has brought the attention of the authorities to the great menace to health of stream pollution. The necessity for legislation to prevent our streams from being polluted by refuse of factories, sewerage and other sources is becoming evident. It has to be dealt with through the legislature although the federal government can assist very materially. There is really no legal justification for the pollution of the waterways, yet the practice has become so universal that society looks on and raises no hand against it. It is predicted that the time is soon coming when all this waste will go to fertilizing the farms of the country and the streams will be pure.

Much Married.

When the Rev. W. T. Hacker performed a marriage ceremony in the county clerk's office this morning which made Francis R. Phelps and Sarah E. Elmer husband and wife, it was not the first time the couple had heard the magic words spoken. Mr. Phelps, who is sixty-eight years of age, has been married twice before, his other two wives having died. His new wife, who is forty-eight years old, has been married three times before, each former husband having been removed by a decree of divorce. Mr. Phelps and his new wife are both residents of Jonesville.—Columbus Republican. This bride and groom were both former residents of Redding township, this county.

Mr. John Kinney A Prominent Indianapolis Lawyer, Says, "After Grippe Take Vinol. It built Me up And Made Me Feel Strong."

"The gripe left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. Nothing seemed to restore my strength. At last I tried Vinol with the very best of results. It built me up and made me feel like a different man, and I am now better and stronger than I have been for years." John Kinney, Indianapolis, Ind.

This is because Vinol is a genuine tonic and body builder which contains peptonate of iron together with every one of the body-building medicinal elements of cod liver oil but without one drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. Vinol acts directly on the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, and enables the digestive organs to obtain the necessary elements from the food eaten to make rich, red blood, healthy flesh and muscle tissue and create strength.

Your money back if Vinol fails to benefit. W. F. Peter Drug Co., Seymour.

First Catholic Missionary Congress Has Adjourned.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The first Catholic missionary congress, which convened in this city last Sunday with 1,500 delegates, including the majority of the distinguished leaders of the church, both clerical and lay, in the country, closed with a mass meeting last night, the feature of which was a stirring address by W. Bourke Cochran of New York.

On every hand were heard expressions of satisfaction at the work of the congress in outlining a new missionary movement designed in particular to perpetuate the Catholicism of immigrants from Catholic countries. A message of thanks was sent to the pope at Rome and another presented to Archbishop Falconio for the encouragement given the meeting.

Alexander Granger, of Kankakee, Ill., sounded the keynote of the new movement today, when he declared that the assimilation of various races into one nation was going on in America, and that it can be most effectively forwarded by the Catholic church and the Catholic church extension society.

PROMISES TO BE
MORE CAREFULThe German Emperor Has a Notable Interview.

IS TOLD A FEW THINGS

Chancellor Von Buelow Tells Him a Straightforward Tale of How the German People Feel About His Impulsive Utterances, and He Promises to Reform.

Berlin, Nov. 18.—Fired by the angry tide of popular feeling that swept the empire from end to end, Emperor William has yielded to the nation and promised that henceforth to conform himself to constitutional methods of conducting the policies of Germany.

The climax to the public utterances of the emperor was reached in an interview which he gave to an Englishman and which was published in the London Daily Telegraph on Oct. 28. As the outcome of this the whole country was aroused; the Reichstag endorsed the attitude of many of its prominent members when they denounced the sovereign, and Chancellor Von Buelow, while he attempted to smooth away the affair, undertook to communicate to his majesty a straightforward and unvarnished statement of how the German people viewed his intervention in affairs of state.

The interview between the emperor and the imperial chancellor took place at the new palace in Potsdam, and at its conclusion the emperor made formal promise to his people that in the future he would not act except through the chancellor and his associate ministers. This promise was made public in the Reichsan Zeiger, the official gazette of the empire. It was in the form of a note, printed on the front page, where decrees, the texts of treaties and the promulgation of new laws generally appear. It was as follows:

"During today's audience granted to the imperial chancellor, his majesty, the emperor and king, listened for several hours to a report by Prince Von Buelow. The imperial chancellor described the feeling and its causes among the German people in connection with the article published in the Daily Telegraph. He also explained the position he had taken during the course of the debates and interpellations on this subject in the Reichstag. His majesty, the emperor, received the statements and explanations with great earnestness and then expressed his will as follows:

"Headless of the exaggerations of public criticism, which are regarded by him as incorrect, his majesty perceives that his principal imperial task is to assure the stability of the policies of the empire, under the guardianship of constitutional responsibilities. In conformity therewith, his majesty, the emperor, approves the chancellor's utterances in the Reichstag and assures Prince Von Buelow of his continued confidence."

Prince Von Buelow had determined upon handing in his resignation if the emperor had not met the country's demands, but as such a situation did not arise, the audience ended with the emperor saying to the imperial chancellor that he reposed full confidence in his wisdom.

The whole nation had awaited with breathless suspense the word from the palace which would decide whether Prince Von Buelow would quit his office and the "reign of personal policy" continue, or whether the chancellor would remain and the desire of the people be fulfilled, that the nation as well as the emperor would have a word in directing the policies of the country. It is certain now that in the minds of the German people that a great step has been taken toward freer government.

So marked had been the change in the last few days of the Germans toward their sovereign that a crowd of some 1,500 that had gathered at the church to attend the funeral of the late General Count Huelzen-Haeseler, at which the emperor and empress were present, being unaware of the result of the audience, greeted their majesties almost in silence. Only a few hats were removed and there were no cheers when the emperor and empress returned to their automobile and started back for Potsdam.

Heney on the Gain.

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—The condition of Francis J. Heney, who was shot in the courtroom on Friday by Morris Haas, is still most satisfactory and the attending surgeons report that he is making excellent progress on the road to recovery. He passed a comfortable night, sleeping most of the time, and rested easily today. Although the bullet has been located, embedded in the left jaw about one inch in front of the ear, the surgeons have decided not to extract it until Mr. Heney gains more strength.

China (porcelain) is so called because it was first brought from the Celestial Kingdom. It is made principally of kaolin, and kaolin takes its name from a high hill in China, where it was first discovered. It is a fine clay, white when pure, and it is easily worked. It has since been found in various places, the United States as well as other countries.

On Thursday President McCrea of the Pennsylvania railroad will deliver an address on "The Pennsylvania Railroad and the Smoke Nuisance," and on the same day G. R. Taylor will speak on "The Illinois Central and the Smoke Nuisance." The purpose of these two addresses is to give publicity to the responses made by the railroads to the popular demand for the abatement of the smoke nuisance.

PLUNGED TO DEATH.

Mining Engineers Thrown From Cage in Coal Mine.

Pittsburg, Nov. 17.—Six men were instantly killed, another dangerously injured and three others had narrow escapes from injury or death in a mine cage accident at Ellsworth mine No. 1, located in Washington county, yesterday.

The dead: M. J. Walsh, aged twenty-three, civil engineer; Eugene G. Smyth, aged twenty-five, civil engineer; J. B. Newcomer, aged twenty-two, civil engineer; three foreigners, known by numbers only.

The injured: Harrison Randolph, drilling machine operator, struck on head by timber.

The three engineers had just completed a survey of the mine preparatory to starting new entries, the six foreigners having assisted them. A heavy wooden beam was loaded into the cage and its ends projected beyond the sides, the men riding on the timber. All went well until, when within seventy-five feet of the top of the shaft the projecting beam struck one of the planks of the shaft's cribbing displaced by expansion due to the cold, and most of the men were dumped out of the cage. The six fell to the bottom, a distance of 225 feet, the heavy timber on top of them and were bruised and crushed almost beyond recognition.

Randolph, although almost unconscious from a blow on his head, caught a chain on the side of the cage and clung to it until rescued at the surface. Three of the foreigners with the first impact were thrown to the floor of the cage and reached the surface, stunned, and slightly bruised, but little worse for their experience.

Says He Will Go to Jail Before He Would Pay a Fine.

Denver, Nov. 17.—President Samuel Gompers at Monday's session of the convention of the American Federation of Labor, declared that if he were found guilty and fined in the contempt proceedings against him at Washington, he would go to jail before he would pay his fine or before he would allow the federation to pay any fine for him.

This statement was made by Mr. Gompers during discussion of the report of the committee of the treasurer's report. The committee recommended that immediately following the adjournment of the convention the executive committee shall take up the proposition of placing its funds where they may be removed from danger of attachment.

The report brought out a political discussion in which several members declared themselves in favor of the formation of an independent political party.

Treasurer John B. Lennon said he had discussed the matter of safeguarding the funds with good attorneys and they all agreed that it was impossible without resulting at some time in perjury by some persons.

QUICK WORK
OF THE LAWChicago Real Estate Man
Confessed Misdeeds.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Peter Van Vlissingen, a real estate dealer, for several years classed among the first of Chicago's prosperous and reputable business men, has confessed to having obtained through forged deeds and notes more than $700,000, and a few hours after his arrest, on his own urgent appeal to be punished, was sentenced to the penitentiary. The arrest, the indictment, the confession and the sentence were the work of less than four hours. Taken in the midst of business from his office desk shortly after the noon hour, Van Vlissingen, a venerable looking man, appeared before the court and in tears confessed that from eighteen to twenty years he had been securing money through the sale of forged documents, and though he had bought back many of those spurious instruments without detection, at least twenty-five people would lose an aggregate of more than $700,000 through the paper which he has not yet redeemed. In forging notes he declared he had perfected a unique device. This consisted of a plate glass desk top, so arranged that by an electric light thrown up from beneath he could readily trace from originals forged signatures onto worthless paper. Throughout his arrest and sentence the prisoner made no effort to defend himself, but only asked that his punishment be speedy. Asked if he had anything to say before sentence was imposed, Van Vlissingen bowing his head replied, "only that I be given my punishment at once." His term in the penitentiary was fixed as indeterminate from one to fourteen years.

Van Vlissingen, who is about forty-five years old, was married Feb. 4, 1907, to Mrs. Jesse Roosevelt Blend, who was described at the time as a distant relative of President Roosevelt. She was a daughter of Wilton C. Roosevelt. Van Vlissingen had been a bachelor, living at the Calumet Club. He was known as being of a philanthropic disposition, giving special attention to the welfare of boys. Some years ago he took under his protection Julius Wiltrax, ten years old, whose father had been accused of murder.

TALE OF THE SEA.

Stirring Story Told by Rescued
Mariners.

New York, Nov. 18.—With forestay sail set, the schooner Jennie Thomas, of Savannah, Ga., lumberladen, if she has not gone to the bottom, is drifting some 400 miles east of the capes of Virginia, in a waterlogged condition. Her captain, William Campbell, and his crew of six men were brought here on the steamer Afghanistan, from Arabian ports. They had fought for their lives for nearly a month on board the leaking vessel in a succession of heavy westerly gales and then abandoned her.

Describing the thrilling experiences, Captain Campbell said: "We sailed from Savannah Oct. 16, with a cargo of lumber for Philadelphia. On the fifth day out the gasoline engine broke down and it was with the greatest difficulty that the sails were handled from that time on. The foresail blew away and the vessel's seams opened. We manned the pumps and for twelve days kept them going day and night, but the water gained steadily. On Nov. 16, when the men had almost given up hope, the steamer Afghanistan came along and asked if assistance was required. We asked for provisions and these were sent to us by the steamer's boat. As the boat started back my men left the pumps as they saw what they regarded as their last chance for life disappearing and refused to stay with the vessel any longer. So we decided to abandon the schooner."

Education of the Farmer.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The education of the farmer and his children formed the theme of a talk by Willet M. Hays, assistant secretary of agriculture, at the session of the National Grange. Mr. Hays for years has been working on a plan for the introduction of a system of rural schools, whereby every child brought up on a farm can study the things necessary to become "good country citizens." He mentioned several instances where the plan had been successfully followed. Good roads and rural free delivery were urged by the delegates and the commission. Incidentally the trusts were made the object of severe condemnation by some of the delegates.

The President-Elect.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 17.—Judge Taft attended the funeral yesterday of Miss Phoebe S. Baker, a lifelong friend of the Taft family, who died Saturday at her home on East Walnut hills. For the rest of the day he remained quietly at the home of his brother. He expects to return to Hot Springs at once.

A lawyer and a doctor were arguing over the merits of their respective professions.

"I don't say that all lawyers are not straight," said the doctor, "but you will admit that your profession doesn't make angels of men."

"No," retorted the lawyer; "you doctors certainly have the best of us there."

GREAT CONGRESS
OF CATHOLICSMeeting In Chicago of Clergymen and Laymen.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—The greatest assemblage of Catholics of the United States since the plenary council in Baltimore, more than twenty years ago, is gathered here. The occasion is the Catholic missionary congress of the United States and Canada.

More than sixty archbishops, bishops and abbots of the United States, Mexico and Canada are assembled here. Their head is the Most Rev. Diomedeo Falconio, apostolic delegate of the holy see at Washington. The leading spirit of the congress and the man in whose hands are all the arrangements is Archbishop Quigley, who is chairman of the board of governors of the Catholic Church Extension society. He is assisted by the Rev. Francis Clement Kelley, president of the society and permanent vice chairman of the congress.

The congress was made possible by virtue of the recent decree of Pope Pius taking the United States and Canada out of the ranks of missionary nations and placing them on the same footing as the nations hitherto recognized as distinctively Roman Catholic.

The aim of the congress is to arouse among the Roman Catholics of the United States a sense of the obligations imposed upon them by the new standing of America in the church. During the congress a message of congratulation will be sent to Pope Pius on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination. The papal jubilee will take place in Rome tomorrow.

SOME CORRESPONDENCE

Of an Interesting Nature Just Made Public.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 16.—The following correspondence which passed between Rev. Magnus Larson, pastor of the Swedish Baptist church of this city, and Judge William H. Taft has just been made public. The letter from Mr. Larson was directed to Judge Taft under date of September 26 last, and the answer by Judge Taft was dated Cincinnati, O., October 9, last. The letter of Rev. Larson to Judge Taft says:

"Dear Sir:—Pardon a few questions from a humble St. Paul preacher. The question I wish to ask concern your work in the Philippine Islands, and your attitude towards the Catholic church. Was it on your recommendation that $7,000,000 were paid to the Catholic church out of the United States treasury, and that the pope was consulted regarding this deal? Was the uprising in the Philippines mostly in the Spanish government, or against the Catholic friars?"

"Have not thousands of dollars been paid to Friars for libraries they have claimed to have been burned? Is it your conviction and policy that Catholic dignitaries and the Catholic church should have greater consideration from a public official and especially from the chief executive of our nation than any other recognized religious body? Very truly yours,

MAGNUS LARSON.

"Pastor of the Swedish Baptist Church, St. Paul, Minn."

Judge Taft's answer follows:

"My Dear Sir:—I have your letter of September 26. You ask me whether $7,000,000 were paid to the Catholic church out of the United States treasury, on my recommendation. I reply that it was not. The Friars agricultural lands in the Philippines, 425,000 acres, or about that amount, were purchased from the corporation formed by the three orders of the friars in the Philippines, and the money was paid from bonds issued by the Philippine government under the authority of congress, and is a charge upon the Philippine Islands. The purchase was approved by the Filipinos.

"The uprising in the Philippines was against the Spanish government and the Spanish Friars whom the government used as policemen in attempting to stamp out the sedition and political discussion among the Filipinos.

"No money has been paid to the Friars for libraries that they claim to have been burned, so far as I can recollect. The sum of money paid was for rent and damage to convents or rectories by United States soldiers. "I do not think that Catholic dignitaries in the Catholic church should have greater consideration from a public official than any other regularly organized religious body.

"I am not a Catholic, and have not been affiliated with the Catholic church. All I have attempted to do was to do justice to that church and to the Filipino people. I have treated that church exactly as I would have treated any other church had it been in a similar position to that of the Catholic church. Very sincerely yours,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Suicide of Man in Jail Who Shot
Francis J. Heney.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 16.—Morris Haas, who shot Francis J. Heney, committed suicide at the county jail by shooting himself through the head. One report says the pistol with which Haas shot himself was concealed in his shoe, where he hid it before shooting Heney. Another report says the pistol was secretly passed to Haas by a friend since his incarceration.

CONVICTS FAIL
IN DARING PLANAttempt to Escape by Firing
Mine Ends Fatally.

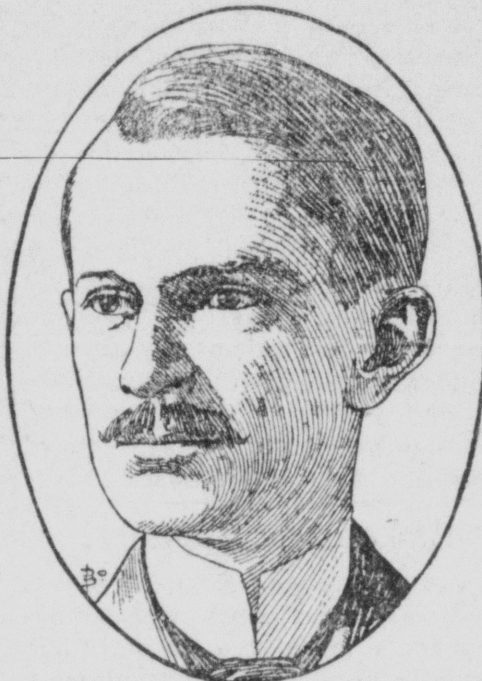

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 18.—Fifty state convicts employed in the mines at Pratt City, formed a conspiracy to set No. 3 mine afire and escape during the confusion, and as a result eight of them are burned to death, one is missing and the others are safely locked in the stockade.

The coup was cunningly planned and daringly executed. A lot of timber lying in the man-way was ignited and the convicts hoped when attention had been attracted to the flames they could make their way through the mine and escape by the main entrance. They had hoped to be able to make their way along the mine ahead of the smoke and fumes from the fire. In this they miscalculated, for nine appear to have been suffocated. The others appeared to be meeting with success when the mine officials suspected something. One employee saw the flames burst out and they came so suddenly and in such volume that he was sure oil or some highly combustible matter had been used in starting it. Making his way to the outside, he informed others and they too believed an attempt was being made to get away. Guards were at once placed and the forty men were caught as they came from the main entry. The rescue work was then begun, for in addition to the convicts it was known that there were a number of free laborers in the mines. All appear to have been gotten out safely except the convicts near the source of the flames, who were early suffocated.

Christmas Hints For Santa Claus' Helpers—An Embroidered Pincushion—Doily Sachet and Other Presents Easily Made.

Any of the gifts pictured in this column may easily be made in an evening.

The pincushion shown is worked out in scrim and decorated with empire wreaths in shaded green ribbon.

The sachet shown can easily be made out of a small doily, which may be embroidered in any appropriate flower.

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

A half yard of white linen scrim.
One bolt of empire green baby ribbon.
One-half yard each of two lighter shades of ribbon.
Two yards of cluny lace.

EMBROIDERED PINCUSHION.

The sachet pads are held in place by baby ribbons harmonizing with the embroidery tints.

A party bag that is decidedly unique resembles in shape a Chinese lantern. Three yards of pompadour ribbon five inches wide were used in making it.

The ribbon was cut into six pieces of equal length, pointed at one end.

The pointed ends were sewed together, forming the full bottom of the bag.

A casing of white satin ribbon an inch wide was sewed around the bag eight inches from the top.

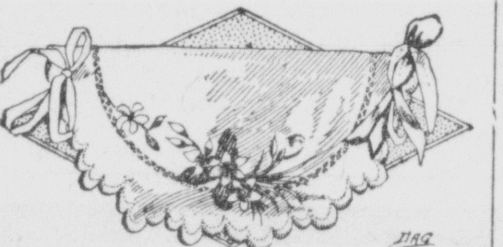

Into the casing thus formed was run featherbone, then covered with fancy stitches of pink and green rope silk matching in shade the figures of the ribbon.

The bag was drawn in the usual way, having a frill two inches deep at the top which was faced with white silk.

The featherbone ring keeps the bag in shape, so that when it is opened all its contents are visible, which in itself is a boon to any one who has searched in an ordinary workbag for some elusive article that cannot be found until the bag has been turned upside down and inside out.

This feature makes it an excellent model to be carried out in black ribbon for a convenient shopping bag.

The tea strainer pincushion is a useful article that needs no particular skill in its development. You buy the strainer and paint a simple flower upon

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

Half yard heavy green linen crash.
Three skeins green silk.
Three skeins brown silk.

it, then fill with horsehair and secure this by a cardboard disk, covered with a bit of any bright silk, etc. Conceal the edge of the strainer with a frill of ribbon from one to two inches wide and tie a bow to the handle, by which the cushion hangs.

Gifts For Young Girls.

Set of collar pins.
Crescent brooch, set with pearls.
Gold bar tie pin.
Hand embroidered turnovers and cuffs.
All dainty neckwear.
Gold and silver pencils.
Overnight bags (leather).
Silver garter clasps.
Morocco workbox, fitted.
Ivory or pearl manicure set.
Good standard books.
Set of the American poets.
Engraved initial or school stationery.
Silver toilet utensils.
Cologne and toilet water.
Sofa pillows.
Bureau cushion and cover.
Down quilt.
Shirt waist box.
Silk for dress or blouse.
Hand embroidered handkerchiefs.
Bows for the hair.
Silver slipper buckles.
Carbon prints or photographs.
Good framed pictures.
Plain gold bracelets.

An Artistic Pillow.

An artistic looking sofa pillow may be made from coarse crash. In constructing it use two pieces about eighteen inches square—the front and the back. The former can be decorated with three large conventional tulips placed side by side and running to the top of the cushion. These are cut from leather, painted in natural shades and then glued to the cover. The deep reds and soft greens are most effective on the neutral background of crash, and this pillow will be decidedly handsome.

A BRIDGE PURSE.

A Useful Trifle to Carry When Playing the Game.

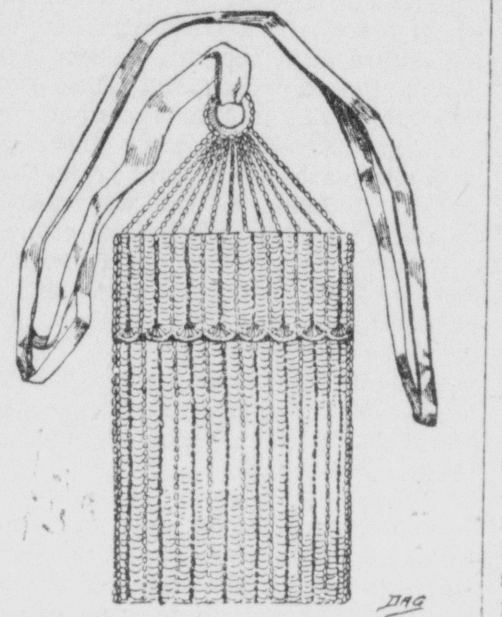

As there is no sign of the fascinating game of bridge losing its attractions for smart society, the bridge purse seen in the illustration will be an acceptable gift for the girl who likes to make her game more exciting by playing a penny or so a point. To make the purse commence with 85 chain, miss 1 chain, 1 double into every stitch, 1 chain turn.

Second row—1 double into 70 stitches (taking up in this and every row the two top threads), 2 chain, miss 2 double, then 12 double into the next 12 double, 1 chain turn.

Third row—12 double, 2 into the 2 chain of last row, 70 more double, 1 chain turn; repeat these last two rows until you have worked 26 rows altogether—that is, 13 stripes—then 1 double into end of stripe, 4 treble into next stripe *, 1 double into next stripe *, 1 double into next, 5 treble into next *, repeat three times, 1 double into next, 4 treble into next, 1 double into next (the last stripe), and fasten off—this is the right side—then fold together and sew up on the wrong side.

Then for the chain loops:

Cut off a length of silk about five yards and with it crochet 1 double on to the inside of the purse on the right hand side 25 chain, draw through the first loop of 2 chain, 2 double on to the ring, 25 chain, draw thread through the next loop, 2 chain on purse, and repeat until all the loops are filled (this requires a little care so as not to get the thread entangled, but it saves breaking off and threading in the ends every time); then do double crochet

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

One ball of crochet silk, any color preferred.
One yard and quarter of narrow ribbon to match silk.
One small ivory ring.
A few steel crochet needles.

to nicely cover and fill up the ring, fasten off and neatly run in the ends of silk. Fold the ribbon and sew on to the top of the ring.

GIFTS EASY TO MAKE.

Ideas For Christmas Any Needlewoman Can Carry Out.

Among the new fancy articles that are being made for Christmas is a folding hatrack which very much resembles a candlestick shade. A semi-circle is first cut out of buckram or tailor's canvas, the outer edge being twenty-two inches and the height five inches. It can be covered with denim, colored linen or flowered cretonne and is bound with gold braid, which is glued on, or with silk braid to match the cover. Three clasps or hooks are sewed on the ends, and when these are fastened together the whole forms a cone on which the hat can rest on the table or the hatbox.

Another acceptable gift is a hand-made medicine case, which would be found most useful when traveling. It is made of plain linen bound with red braid. Cut a piece of the linen 14 by 12 inches and fashion it so that it forms four well shaped flaps. Bind these with the braid. Then take about ten inches of red silk garter elastic and stitch it to the center of the linen in six different places. In the elastic put five two ounce bottles.

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

One-eighth yard of cretonne.
One-eighth yard of china silk.
One piece of cardboard.
One spool of black darning cotton.
One spool of white darning cotton.
Half yard of ribbon.

DARNING COTTON HOLDER.

These can easily be obtained from any druggist. The two cross flaps are finished with a button and buttonhole.

A darning cotton holder is a most welcome gift to a mother. Two oval pieces of cardboard, about four and a half inches long by two and a half inches wide, are covered with flowered cretonne or any odd pieces of silk and a lining of white. Two spools of darning cotton, one black and the other white, are placed between the two pieces and held there by a piece of ribbon, which passes through the center of the spools and the upper and lower pieces of cardboard, being tied finally in a large bow at the top.

How to Make Christmas Presents For Both Sexes—Hatpin Cushion—Needlebook. Suit Case Set For a Man.

The hatpin cushion shown is made of pompadour ribbons and val lace. It is tied in the center with baby ribbon.

The needlebook is also a dainty little trinket, easily made, and appreciated either by men or women.

The design shown is a conventional primrose pattern worked in ribbons.

For the man who travels nothing will be more appreciated than what is called

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

One piece of cotton wadding.
One yard of Dresden ribbon.
Yard and half valenciennes lace.
Quarter yard taffeta silk.
Two yards baby ribbon.

HATPIN CUSHION.

ed a suit case set. So many people use the suit case, but have never been able to overcome the difficulty of keeping the shoes and brushes from rubbing up against their clean linen. There are three different articles in this set, all of which are made of coarse linen. The receptacle for shirts is in the shape of a large envelope, the edges bound with braid, and should be large enough to contain two shirts.

The bag for collars is made from the same material. The bottom is circular and made from pasteboard. A good idea is to sew to this a strip of pasteboard about two inches deep. These should be covered with the linen before being fastened together. The upper part of bag should be full and gathered with a drawing string. This protects the collars from crushing as well as keeps them clean.

The third article in the set is a plain linen bag lined with oiled silk. This is intended for sponges and protects the contents of the suit case from the moisture of this toilet necessity after it has been used. The hairbrush can be put in this bag if no sponge is used. The monogram can be embroidered on the outside.

To make a slumber robe for baby take two and a half yards of plain silkoline, three bolts of No. 1 ribbon, one skein of Shetland floss and one bat of fine cotton.

Divide the silkoline into two equal parts, place in a frame and put in

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

Quarter yard of plain taffeta silk.
Quarter yard of brocade silk.
Filo embroidery silks.
Two yards of half inch ribbon.

NEEDLEBOOK.

layers of cotton between, ready for tying.

Tie the ribbons all in tiny bows. Thread the needle with the Shetland floss, using it double. Bring the needle up from the bottom, then down again, taking a stitch through one of the bows. Tie the yarn on the wrong side, with three or four extra needles tied in the knot to make a small tuft.

Continue the knotting in this manner, beginning with two and a half inches from the edges, making the tufts four inches apart. Turn in the edges all around and buttonhole closely with the yarn used singly.

Crochet a row of shells around the quilt, each shell of five double crochet fastened with a single crochet and placed close enough together to make the work lie flat and full at the corners.

On the right side, just inside the buttonholing, make a row of feather-stitching with the yarn.

This makes a light, dainty cover for the baby. It is very pretty of blue silkoline tied with white ribbons or of white silkoline tied with pink and blue.

Safety Pin Holder.

As a gift to young mothers to accompany the baby basket safety pin holders make useful presents.

PAPER CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

How to Make Attractive Desk Blotters and Wall Pockets.

Make your Christmas presents of paper. One of the most attractive of these paper articles is a desk blotter. The usual size for a woman is eighteen inches deep by fifteen wide. The materials necessary are one piece of cardboard of the dimensions mentioned and a second piece half an inch less in each dimension. The pad is covered with flowered paper on the lower side and has flowered paper corners. Plain crape paper is used to cover the top of the pad.

The largest of the cardboard rectangles is first covered with the flowered paper. The paper is folded over the edge to a considerable depth, at least an inch and a half being desirable. Its edges are then pasted neatly down, care being taken to make neat corners. The smaller cardboard rectangle is covered with the plain crape paper, which, for instance, may be yellow if a yellow flowered paper is being used. Four right angled triangles which are three inches on the two even sides are then cut from stiff and very heavy wrapping paper and covered on one side with plain and on the other with flowered paper. These are the four corners. When they are covered a margin of paper is left on the equal sides, and this is re-enforced by a narrow strip of muslin. This margin is turned over and pasted to the upper side of the cardboard, which is to form the bottom of the pad. The upper part of the pad is then laid on the lower part, and they are pasted neatly together. The corners, of course, go underneath the pad corners. The pad corners are not pasted down along their long side, as it is desirable to have them free so that new blotters may be slipped in and out at will.

A wall pocket of paper may be made which contains three pockets. For this purpose the bordered crape paper which comes in rolls may be used, or you may select paper napkins whose borders are in the form of garlands,

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

One roll of plain crape paper.
One large blotter.

DESK BLOTTER.

which will not make the pocket too long. The pocket must, of course, be just as long as the motif of the design.

The materials needed are three pieces of cardboard about nine inches long. The length, however, depends upon the design of the paper which is to be used. The cardboard is just the length of the design. The three cardboards are of graduated depths. They are straight on three sides, and on the top they are cut in the shape of the design of the paper. Sometimes the top line is straight and rounding, and again it will have large scallops. A design should not be chosen which has too small a pattern.

All of the cardboards are covered on the outside with the bordered paper and inside with plain crape paper. Perforations are made at equal distances in the three pieces along the bottom and sides. The perforations along the bottom are close enough together to permit of the sections of the pocket being laced together. Only three holes are necessary along the sides. Ribbon the color of the flower in the border is used to lace the sections together and fastened at the ends with two tiny bows. Along the sides bands of ribbon are used to hold the sections together. The lowest band is very short, the next one longer and the top one longest of all. The edges of the pocket may be touched with gold paint, which adds to the attractiveness of the design.

Homemade Presents For the Dainty Woman—Shoe Case For Traveling—Nightdress Case—Holder For Baby Ribbon.

For women who travel as well as those who stay at home there are many novelties in workbags and sewing cases being shown in the shops which are not only attractive, but essentially practical. While the cost of

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

Two yards of pretty cretonne.
One yard and half of elastic.
One piece of tape.
Four brass eyelets.

SHOE CASE FOR TRAVELING.

these is not exorbitant, any one of them may be made at home from odd pieces of ribbon, chintz, silk or linen, which, with the addition of a bit of hand embroidery, make pretty gifts.

The shoe bag or case is a useful article which also may be constructed at home at a trifling expense from almost any material one chooses, provided it is heavy enough to keep its shape. Either linen or cretonne is particularly effective, the four pockets accommodating two pairs of shoes or slippers. These pockets are bound and fastened to the case with ribbons or tape matching or harmonizing with the material of the case, in the top of which are set four brass eyelets. In this way the necessity of tacking in place is avoided, the eyelets being slipped over brass hooks screwed in door or wall.

A convenient pocket pincushion and pin case are bowed with ribbon and set above the shoe pockets. When traveling the case is simply rolled and tied with a matching ribbon tacked at one end on the outer side.

A pretty case for the robe de nuit embroidered with a heavy mercerized thread on a heavy linen identifies the long envelope case with its embroidered buttoned flap as that in which the particular girl carries her dainty night robe. This is made of heavy white butcher's linen in envelope pattern, embroidered in white cotton thread, and may be lined, if one elects,

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

One yard of heavy butcher's linen.
Three skeins white mercerized cotton.
One and a half yards China silk.
Sachet powder.
One pearl button.

NIGHTDRESS CASE.

with a dainty pink and blue china silk, beneath which is laid a single sheet of sachet scented wadding.

Every girl who uses baby ribbon would be delighted with a case filled with three or four different shades as a Christmas gift. Here are two attractive ways to prepare such a gift: For the first take a long, shallow pasteboard box just wide enough to hold a ten yard roll of baby ribbon and long enough for as many bolts as you may wish to give. Cover this box neatly inside and out with wall paper or a pretty fancy silk, first having made as many small slits on the top as there are bolts of ribbon.

Paste the covering on the box, and if it is found difficult to turn in the edges neatly around the slits do not attempt it, but cover the roughness with a narrow edge of gilt paper for braid.

Put the ribbon in the box, first having removed the paper and rewrapped the ribbon and put one end through each slit so it is about an inch on the outside of the lid. If these ends are fastened through bodkins, for which narrow strips have been provided on the top of lid to hold them in place, it will add much to the convenience of the gift.

Workbag For Christmas.

A capacious workbag is made of silk a yard and a quarter long. Across each end featherbone is sewed; then the selvage on either side is gathered up as close as possible and secured so that the two pieces meet.

Ribbons tie the opening together in the middle, and the bag is carried by handles of ribbons that start from big bows on either side where the silk is drawn up.

ATTRACTIVE TRIFLES.

Artistic Gifts That Take Little Time to Make.

The mission photograph frame is carried out in heavy green linen crash. The colors used in embroidering the conventional design are the dark shades of green and the bronze browns.

Pretty opera bags are always a welcome gift, and half a yard of handsome ribbon will make up into a most desirable receptacle for glasses.

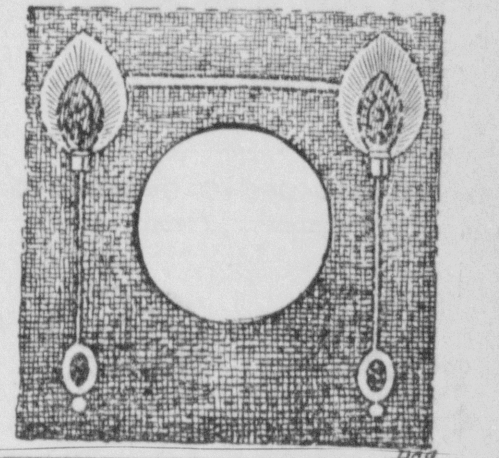

Candle shades covered with pale pink baby ribbon in little crinkly loops are attractive and as presents would please most housewives.

Perfumed coat and skirt hangers are popular, and so are the ribbon cases that contain the glass tube hatpin holder.

Really beautiful utility cases that can be hung upon a wall or rolled for traveling are made from ribbon. To make such an article get half a yard of ribbon that is six inches in width. Turn down an inch wide hem at the top and along the bottom gather and sew on a thin piece of silk the same size. This is then divided into pockets and the upper edge shifted. Runners the length of the case, dividing it into sections, should then be put on the inside.

Through these articles of the toilet such as a shoe horn, button hook, manicure implements, etc., and a sewing outfit with pockets for needles, spools of thread and silk, scissors and all such necessities are put. A little pincushion is set firmly at one end. The pockets receive bolts of baby ribbon, buttons and all the trifles that go to furnish a workbasket.

Cardboard boxes neatly covered with ribbon and furnished with three spools of baby ribbon in dainty colorings are a gift within the skill of the amateur seamstress. A loop should be added

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

One small linen doily.
Filo embroidery silks.
Sheet of cotton wadding.
Ten cents' worth of sachet powder.
Three yards of baby ribbon.

MISSION PHOTOGRAPH FRAME.

inside the cover to hold a couple of bodkins and a pair of tiny scissors.

A ribbon covered glove case is equally simple of construction. It should be interlined with perfumed cotton and fitted with a soft silk lining. A pretty finish is to turn back one corner, holding down with a bow of ribbon.

Another acceptable present that can be made by the artistic girl is a set of name cards, hand painted. These are sure to give pleasure if given to a woman who entertains largely.

Those in the form of floral wreaths cut out so they slip on over the edge of the tumbler are new; also dainty figures of women copied from some old painting and provided with pasteboard backs so they stand. These figures can carry big muffs as reticules that can be lifted and show a blank space for the name underneath, thus making them available later for framing when pasted to a flat surface and surrounded by a gift mat.

College Flags.

College flags are quite simple to make for Christmas gifts, but require care and much precision in putting the letters on as well as in cutting them.

A good plan is to cut the letters from stiff cardboard and trace around them on the felt, afterward cutting with a sharp knife.

In mounting on the felt background paste them on with a very thin coating of photograph paste and couch around all edges with many strands of silk caught down at regular intervals with a single strand of the same color.

Couching means to hold the heavy cord or many strands of silk along the edge of the thing to be outlined and stitching across it and through the material with the single thread in the needle.

Handkerchief Case.

A handkerchief case is a pretty gift that can be made from ribbon by first cutting two pieces of cardboard into heart shapes. These hearts are covered on both sides and form the bottom and the cover, respectively.

The broad flowered ribbon used is gathered on both edges, one of which is sewed to the heart at the bottom. Then a lining of plain soft silk is set in, and the edge of the ribbon is connected to the upper edge of the lining. A ruching of narrow ribbon trims the cover and a bow acts as a hinge. A loop answers the purpose of a lid lifter.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, '08.

EVERY democratic member of the legislature from the Fourth district is expected to support L. Ert Slack, of Franklin, for United States senator. The district organization is against him but Slack is counting on the votes just the same.

THE Lamphere trial at Laporte reveals a series of crimes and the remarkable thing about it is that these crimes could be committed one after another in a civilized community. But it seems to be true that it is the habit of most everybody to shut their eyes to a great many wrongs about them.

Now is a good time to begin telling the people about holiday goods you have to sell. There are always some early buyers and they will soon be wanting to know where to go to get what they want.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

WITNESSES FOR PROSECUTION

Continue Their Evidence In Lamphere Trial.

GRUESOME TALE BY SHERIFF

Joseph Maxson and Sheriff Smulzer Were the Principal Witnesses in the Notorious Gunness Case—The Latter Tells of the Finding of the Bodies.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 19.—Carefully working up to the denouement the evidence which the state claims will show that Ray Lamphere set fire to the home of Mrs. Belle Gunness and thereby caused the death of Mrs. Gunness and her three children, Prosecutor Smith unraveled before the jury the stories of the fire, told of by the men who were earliest on the scene.

The greatest interest centers about the testimony of Joseph Maxson, the hired man, who since the fire has been lecturing in country school houses, at county fairs and in assembly halls on "the great Gunness mystery," but it varied in no great particular from the story which he told the coroner, and which he related before the grand jury. Indirectly, Attorney Weir, for the defense, on cross-examination tried to imply that Mrs. Gunness on the night of the fire had "doped" Maxson in the oranges which he ate, but Maxson denied this.

Explanation of the $10,000 story referred to in the letter from Mrs. Gunness to A. M. Helgelein, regarding the disappearance of his brother, was made, and it will prove a strong link in the chain of evidence that is being woven around Lamphere for the alleged murder of Helgelein.

Sheriff Smulzer's testimony related that Lamphere had told him (Smulzer) that Mrs. Gunness was then looking for a man named Helgelein who was wanted in Aberdeen, S. D., for having killed a man in a gambling house and robbed him of $10,000. Sheriff Smulzer telegraphed the authorities in Aberdeen and received a reply that there had been no such murder or robbery, and that Helgelein was a well-known farmer in that vicinity. Smulzer paid no further attention to the charge.

Smulzer testified to being notified about 5 o'clock on the morning of April 28 of the fire and of going there immediately with Deputy Sheriff Anstiss in his automobile. He told of taking charge of the search for the bodies and of keeping a gang of men at work all day and of finding the bodies in the northeast corner, where the fire had been hottest all day and where the greatest amount of debris was found. The bodies of the two children were found first. The arms and legs were not detached when discovered, but they fell away when the bodies were moved. The head also of one of the children looked solid enough until it was touched, when it almost fell to pieces. The two girls were together, face downward, appearances indicating that the larger one had her arms clasped around the other. There was a small hole in the head of one of the girls. The large adult body was on its back, a short distance away, and in the arms was the little boy. The arms and legs of some of the bodies were burned off.

Daniel M. Hutson and William Humphrey, who helped the sheriff search the ruins of the Gunness home, related their experiences, which varied in no way from their former stories. Hutson is the man who recently told of seeing a woman resembling Mrs. Gunness at the farm on July 9.

WOMAN FALLS NINE FLOORS.

Miss Clara W. Herrick Killed In Pythian Building at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—Miss Clara W. Herrick, a Christian Science practitioner, fell down the elevator shaft of the Indiana Pythian building to instant death at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had left her office and was waiting in the corridor on the ninth floor for the elevator. When one of the cars, upbound, stopped at that floor, she stepped in. As the car started up to the eleventh floor Miss Herrick either attempted to leave the car and regain the ninth floor, or stumbled and fell. Her body went through the opening, striking the closing door and stopping it. She fell to the floor, then rolled backward into the open shaft. The one scream, followed by the several impacts as her body bumped against the sides of the shaft, caused those in the building to crowd the corridors on every floor. Some few saw the woman's body strike first against one side and then another in the descent.

Police Shoot Dogs.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 19.—The Terre Haute police have shot nearly 200 unmuzzled dogs in the last two days. The order now is to shoot dogs which have no license tags, although they may be muzzled. At the beginning of the mad dog scare it was estimated there were 2,500 dogs in Terre Haute, but only 500 $1 licenses had been issued. Since then between 500 and 600 dogs have been killed and 200 licenses have been issued.

Coast Artillery.

Arthur J. Downing, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Downing, of Grassy Fork township, returned home recently after a year and nine months service in the United States Army. He was a gunner in the heavy coast artillery and was located most of the time at Ft. Barancas, Fla. He has a great many interesting things to tell about his experience. One of their feats was to fire one of their heavy guns six times in one minute and nineteen seconds. The ball weighed more than one thousand pounds and was fired at a target eight miles away with great accuracy. Five hundred pounds of powder were used in each discharge. In other words, three thousand pounds of powder was exploded in the one gun in seventy-nine seconds. The entire weight of ammunition used in the gun in that short period was about 10,000 pounds, or about five tons. No wonder a great naval or land battle is expensive to the government. Cotton is put in the ears of the gunners to protect the drum of their ears and in addition they stand on their tip toes when the gun is fired. The jar is tremendous and frequently windows are shattered when the guns are discharged near buildings. Mr. Downing was discharged from the army on account of his eyes. Otherwise he is in splendid physical condition.

Most of the members of the Canton Seymour and several other Odd Fellows from here returned from Indianapolis this morning on the early train where they had been attending the dedication of the new Odd Fellows building.

METROPOLITAN POLICE LAW.

It Is Believed It Will Be Repealed by Next Legislature.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—It is regarded as practically a certainty that the legislature at its coming session will repeal the metropolitan police law. The legislature is Democratic and the Democrats have been after this law with sharp axes for several years. Carroll K. McCollough, who was elected to the senate from Madison county, will introduce a bill to repeal the law and place the appointive power in the hands of the city administrations. Indications are that it will be passed without difficulty and receive the signature of Governor-elect Thomas R. Marshall. Fourteen cities are affected by the present law.

It is now believed that the senatorial race is rapidly nearing the stage where it will be Kern against the entire field, although there is no sign of a combination against him. Kern's friends believe that candidates are being talked of in several districts for no other purpose than to hold votes away from him until his opponents have an opportunity to get underway. They are resting easier, however, since Tom Taggart announced his withdrawal, as they believe that no other candidate could have defeated Kern. The latter said today that he does not know what attitude Taggart will take, but he does not believe he will work for any candidate.

Governor-elect Thomas R. Marshall today made public a reply he sent to a lecture bureau at Chicago offering him a number of engagements next year. He says in it that he will devote himself to his office during the next four years and will not make any Chautauqua speeches. He was urged to accept some appointments made for the late Senator Carmack, of Tennessee.

Representative Lyman Babcock, who is acting as Governor's Hanly's private secretary, will introduce at the coming session of the legislature an inheritance tax bill providing for a special tax of 2 per cent of all estates of from $10,000 to $50,000, and of 5 per cent for estates exceeding $50,000.

SAVED FROM DROWNING.

Doctor Dragged From Water By Faithful Dog.

Paoli, Ind., Nov. 19.—A party of West Baden hunters had a narrow escape from drowning while trying to cross Lost river about six miles from that place, and the rescue of one of the hunters was affected only by the heroism of a dog that accompanied them. The party consisted of L. S. Dickel, Dr. C. E. Boyd and Dr. Clyde Jones.

The hunters tried to cross the river on some brush and debris. The floating mass parted and the three hunters dropped into twelve feet of water. They were handicapped by their heavy hunting costumes and guns, and the situation became serious. Finally Dickey and Boyd managed to reach the shore after a struggle, but Dr. Jones was fast losing his strength, when the dog that accompanied the party bounded into the water and to the rescue of Jones. The drowning man grasped the dog with a firm hold and was thus brought to the shore.

STRINGTOWN ON THE PIKE

Our neighborhood was aroused by the burning of No. 10 school house Monday which caught fire from a defective flue and owing to a high wind, was quickly consumed. The fire was discovered by the teacher's L. C. Gillaspys' little son, Ray, and Mr. Hill who chanced to be passing. It was with thanksgiving in their hearts that many anxious parents and friends who hurried to the scene, found that the teacher and pupils, more than forty in number, had passed from the burning house and the greatly excited and frightened, were not in the least injured. It is due to the bravery of Mr. Gillaspys and several neighbors that the children's wraps, and books and the greater part of the school furnishings were saved. Hard work on the part of the fire fighters prevented the wood shed, near by from burning. The school house has been a menace to life and property for several years and we hope a modern building will be ready for our school children in a short time.

AN INTERESTING MEETING

Of the Trustees of the Carnegie Foundation.

BISHOP HUGHES HAS RESIGNED

The Meeting Was Presided Over by President Eliot of Harvard, Who Will Draw the Largest Annuity Allowed by the Rules of the Foundation—Massachusetts the Only State to Qualify for Annuities.

New York, Nov. 19.—"Wealth is, in itself, no ground for honoring a man. It is of value to the community only as it is put to service, and it is only as a man puts to service that which he has, either of wealth or of ability in some line, that he has a right to claim the friendliness and good will of the community." These sentiments, expressed by Andrew Carnegie, sounded the keynote of the annual meeting of the trustees of the Carnegie Foundation, held at the headquarters of the foundation here.

Mr. Carnegie again made clear his purpose to have the revenue from the $15,000,000 fund donated by him to the foundation, regarded as the rightful heritage of retiring college presidents and teachers, and in no sense a charity.

President Eliot of Harvard, presided at the meeting as chairman of the board of trustees, and allusion was feelingly made to his approaching retirement. Dr. Eliot will himself receive the annuity prescribed for all retiring college officials of the highest paid class. This amount, $4,000, is the largest annual payment allowed in accordance with the foundation rules and is much less proportionately than the 60 or 70 per cent allowed to educators who have drawn smaller salaries.

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, of the Methodist Episcopal church, now stationed at San Francisco, tendered his resignation as a member of the board to which he was appointed while president of DePauw University, Indiana. Dr. Hughes was elected to the bishopric at the last general conference of his church.

Henry I. Pritchett's annual report which will shortly be issued, will show that Massachusetts state university is the only one of the state institutions which has qualified for retirement annuities under the terms of Mr. Carnegie's foundation. These provided "that in each state where a state university is located a legislative act of approval shall be passed before the instructors in such university shall be eligible to annuities after the close of their active service periods." Only in Massachusetts has the legislature met since these terms were made known.

President and Labor.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Further conferences at the White House between the president and men who are prominent in labor matters made the attitude of the administration toward proposed labor legislation a subject of keen discussion in Washington. It is learned from the highest authority that the object of the president in giving a dinner to friends of labor and in holding the subsequent conferences was primarily to bring about a better understanding between representatives of the government and labor leaders and to impress upon the labor interests of the country the disposition of the administration to receive its representatives in conference on an equality with all others.

Pittsburg, Nov. 19.—Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte, of President Roosevelt's cabinet was the chief speaker at last night's joint session of the National Municipal league, of which Mr. Bonaparte is president, and the American Civic association. The meeting was held at Carnegie Music Hall and attracted the largest audience that has yet attended the meetings of the National Associations here this week. Attorney General Bonaparte's topic was "The Criminal Law as a Means to Enforce the Will of the People."

A Pointed Paragraph.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19.—The feeling entertained by the late George D. Wolf, of Somerdale, toward Charles W. Wenzel, his son-in-law, is shown in the following paragraph in his will: "Fifty cents be paid to my son-in-law, Charles W. Wenzel, a native of Huntingdon, Pa., to enable him to buy a good stout rope with which to hang himself." The decedent left an estate valued at $10,500.

JOHN D. EXCITES MUCH INTEREST

He Testifies In the Case of Standard Oil Company.

TELLS STORY WITH EASE

He Recounts With Ease of Manner and Pleasant Tone the Early History of His Famous Oil Company—His Appearance in Court Was the Cause of a Large Assemblage of Spectators and Newspaper Men.

New York, Nov. 19.—Relating his story with the air of a country gentleman of kindly mien engaging a host of friends with incidents of days long past, John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil company, though for nearly ten years retired from the active cares of company direction, for over two hours yesterday reviewed the history of the early oil trade and the development of the first companies that later grew into the present so-called oil trust. Mr. Rockefeller was a witness for the defense in the suit to dissolve the Standard which is being prosecuted by the United States government, and his appearance at the hearing before Judge Franklin Ferriss, the referee, brought a large crowd to the customs building.

The head of the big oil combine was surrounded by an imposing circle of counsel and when he began his testimony he gazed complacently upon a swarm of newspaper men behind whom pressed close a throng of people that filled the room. Mr. Rockefeller appeared at complete ease and when John G. Milburn, of counsel for the Standard Oil company propounded his first question, the witness spoke out in full tones as if he desired the most distant spectator in the chamber to hear. Then in a manner that indicated a pleasure at what he was about to tell, Mr. Rockefeller spoke of his start in the oil business and how under adverse conditions that business grew to the proportions of the Standard Oil company of Ohio, with its capitalization of $1,000,000. Mr. Rockefeller's eyes sparkled in reflection on that early financial organization and speaking of its million dollar capitalization with almost boyish enthusiasm, he said:

"It seemed very large to us, who began with only $4,000 in 1862." Thus the proceedings lost in a sense their official aspect because of the engaging manner which Mr. Rockefeller displayed in his answers which now and then continued flashes of kindly humor. A glow of health showed in Mr. Rockefeller's smooth shaven face and to inquiring newspaper men he replied that he never felt better. The president of the Standard was dressed in a plain business suit of dark material and across his vest suspended a heavy gold watch chain. A dark purple necktie, in which a large pearl pin was set.

The development of Mr. Rockefeller's testimony, which carried him to the organization of the Standard Oil company of Ohio, indicated that one of the lines of the defense would be that the Standard Oil company is not the result of an aggressive policy to gain the mastery of the oil trade, as charged, but the natural outcome of economical development which the exigencies of the oil industry demanded.

Dismissed the Case.

New York, Nov. 19.—After much testimony as to treatment accorded laborers employed by the Florida East Coast Railroad company in the construction of its extension across the Florida keys, the case of David E. Harley, an agent of the railroad company accused of conspiracy with three employment agents of this city to lure men to Florida and there keep them in a state of compulsory labor equivalent to peonage and slavery, was dismissed by Judge Hough in the United States circuit court, after the jury, acting upon instructions from the bench, had returned a verdict of not guilty.

Forest Fires in Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 19.—Forest fires are spreading alarm and disaster in the knobs and lowlands adjacent to Danville in Boyle county, on the Queen & Crescent railroad. Thousands of panels of fence have been destroyed, and on account of the extremely dry weather and heavy winds the people remain on watch all night to save their homes and property. Hundreds of men fought the flames last night, but the fires continued unabated today. The country for miles around was lighted up by the blazes. Practically no rain has fallen in this locality since the first of August and water for stock is being hauled for miles.

Brothers Have Fatal Quarrel.

Pittsburg, Nov. 19.—Reuben Crown, until recently a follower of Eastern racetracks, lies dead in the county morgue, death resulting from a bullet wound. Joseph Crown, his brother, a practicing attorney in local courts, and well known about the city, is in a hospital hovering between life and death, a bullet having penetrated his chest. Both shots, it is alleged, were fired by Reuben Crown following a quarrel between the brothers over money matters.
